*Invocation

Margaret Heidenreich

Prayer of Confession:

One: Amazing God, there is more to life than we can see or fathom, yet how often we try to shrink the mystery, tame the dream, limit what is possible.

All: Spirit of the living God, fall afresh on me.

One: Forgive our sins this day: Loosen our tongue-tied witness; embolden our timid and cautious service; fill us with compassion that corrects injustice.

All: Spirit of the living God, fall afresh on me. Melt me, mold me, fill me, use me.

One: Help us this day to discover our voice to speak your word to the world.

All: Spirit of the living God, fall afresh on me.

Moments of Silent Confession

Assurance of Pardon

Acts 2:38-39

One: Peter declared: "Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins. And you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. The promise is for you and your children and for all who are far off—for all whom the Lord our God will call." In Jesus Christ we are forgiven and are invited to be filled with Holy Spirit! This is the Good News.

All: Thanks be to God.

Lamb of God

Arr. Lloyd Larson

Your only Son, no sin to hide, but you have sent him from your side to walk upon this guilty sod, and to become the Lamb of God.

Your gift of love they crucified, they laughed and scorned him as he died, the humble King they named a fraud, and sacrificed the Lamb of God.

O Lamb of God, sweet Lamb of God; I love the holy Lamb of God.
O wash me in his precious blood. My Jesus Christ, the Lamb of God.

I was so lost I should have died, but you have brought me to your side
To be led by your staff and rod, and to be called a lamb of God.

O Lamb of God, sweet Lamb of God; I love the holy Lamb of God.
O wash me in his precious blood, 'till I am just a lamb of God.

Prayers of the People

The Lord's Prayer

All: Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Offertory Spirit of God, Descend Upon My Heart Croly/Atkinson
Jordan Krack, Baritone; Hugh Ralston, Tenor

Spirit of God, descend upon my heart; wean it from earth, through all its pulses move;
Stoop to my weakness, mighty as though art, and make me love thee as I ought to love.

Hast thou not bid us love thee, God and king; all, all thine own: Soul, heart, and strength and mind? I see thy cross, there teach my heart to cling, O let me seek thee, and O let me find!

Teach me to feel that thou art always nigh; teach me the struggles of the soul to bear, to check the rising doubt, the rebel sigh; teach me the patience of unanswered prayer.

Teach me to love thee as thine angels love, one holy passion filling all my frame;
the baptism of the heaven-descended dove, my heart an altar and thy love the flame.

Hymn #187 Breathe on Me, Breath of God

Scripture Lesson Acts 2:1-13 Rev. Dr. Robert Anderson
Pew Bible Page 771 Large Print Bible 1692

One: This is God's Word for God's People.

All: Thanks be to God.

When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place. Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit enabled them.

Now there were staying in Jerusalem God-fearing Jews from every nation under heaven. When they heard this sound, a crowd came together in bewilderment, because each one heard their own language being spoken. Utterly amazed, they asked: "Aren't all these who are speaking Galileans? Then how is it that each of us hears them in our native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya near Cyrene; visitors from Rome (both Jews and converts to Judaism); Cretans and Arabs—we hear them declaring the wonders of God in our own tongues!" Amazed and perplexed, they asked one another, "What does this mean?" Some, however, made fun of them and said, "They have had too much wine."

The Prayer of Blessing

Apostles Creed

All: I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

The musical score is written in 3/4 time with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). It consists of two systems of music. The first system includes four verses of lyrics. The second system continues the lyrics and concludes with a double bar line. The melody is primarily composed of quarter and eighth notes, with some rests. The bass line provides a steady accompaniment with mostly quarter notes.

Looking Ahead — Sunday, June 12

Next Sunday, Dr. Anderson will be on vacation and the Rev. Chris Torrey will be preaching. Rev. Torrey is one of our favorite pulpit supply preachers so come prepared for a good word from the Lord. When the Declaration of Independence described "The Pursuit of Happiness," it didn't mean to seek or chase happiness as much as to practice it. Scripture points us beyond "my happiness" to the shared experience of the good life. Chris Torrey's sermon explores biblical implications of the pursuit of happiness!

Pastor Bob on Vacation

Pastor Bob will be on vacation June 6 through June 12. Rev. Chris Torrey will be preaching on Sunday, June 12.
